2007 SEQUANA PINOT NOIR
DUTTON RANCH VINEYARD
GREEN VALLEY OF RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY

APPELLATION: One of the smallest appellations on the Sonoma coast, Green Valley of Russian River Valley has a cool climate, a result of fog that comes from the Pacific Ocean each evening. The cooler weather and well-drained Goldridge soils create an idyllic climate for growing Pinot Noir, yielding complex, elegant wines with well-balanced acidity. Pinot Noir achieves greatness here.

VINEYARD: The sustainably-farmed Dutton Family Ranch is located on gently sloping hillsides. Three separate two-acre blocks are planted on well-drained Goldridge soils atop ancient sandstone marine terraces. The eight-year-old vines were planted with specifications on vine density, slope and direction, allowing exposure to morning and afternoon sun. Six unique clones of Pinot Noir enhance the complexity of this wine. The Dutton family has played a pivotal role in shaping the wine quality of the Russian River Valley.
